

Barn wood spruce

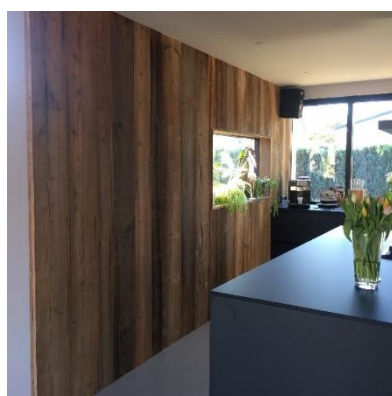

Barn wood is a popular product that is used a great deal for interior applications. It is a sustainable, durable material that is very suitable for being used as wall panelling or to manufacture doors or kitchen fronts. Using oak will lend a luxurious feel to your project. Barn wood is also excellently suited for being used outside, such as in the facade of a building or as exterior doors. In short, this is a beautiful construction material with a rich history. In addition to oak barn wood, we also carry oak barn wood, a beautiful material for manufacturing furniture!
