

Authentic oak railroad beams

In addition to our train carriage boards & wine press boards, we also keep a stock of aged oak railroad beams. These are durable and have a characteristic, robust and warm look & feel. Our railroad beams are all sourced from the Dutch Railways and make for the perfect alternative to oak train carriage boards. All of our railroad beams are clean and do not contain any creosote or carbolineum. They have been dried to a moisture level of 12%, making them perfect for use in interior applications.
